Explore four centuries of Wisconsin history at the very places where it happened. Enjoy a wide range of daily activities, changing exhibits and unique special events that bring history to life.
The Wisconsin Historical Society connects you with the past by inviting you inside the very places where history happened!